

ANNEX 13

CO-OPERATION ON TRADE AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

1. In order to promote the achievement of the objectives of Chapter Thirteen and to assist in the fulfilment of their obligations pursuant to it, the Parties have established the following indicative list of areas of co-operation:

- (a) exchange of views on the positive and negative impacts of this Agreement on sustainable development and ways to enhance, prevent or mitigate them, taking into account sustainability impact assessments carried out by the Parties;
- (b) co-operation in international fora responsible for social or environmental aspects of trade and sustainable development, including in particular the WTO, the ILO, the United Nations Environment Programme and multilateral environmental agreements;
- (c) co-operation with a view to promoting the ratification of fundamental and other ILO Conventions and multilateral environmental agreements with an impact on trade;
- (d) exchange of information and co-operation on corporate social responsibility and accountability, including on the effective implementation and follow-up of internationally agreed guidelines, fair and ethical trade, private and public certification and labelling schemes including eco-labelling and green public procurement;
- (e) exchange of views on the trade impact of environmental regulations, norms and standards;
- (f) co-operation on trade-related aspects of the current and future international climate change regime, including issues relating to global carbon markets, ways to address adverse effects of trade on climate, as well as means to promote low-carbon technologies and energy efficiency;
- (g) co-operation on trade-related aspects of biodiversity including in relation to biofuels;
- (h) co-operation on trade-related measures to promote sustainable fishing practices;
- (i) co-operation on trade-related measures to tackle the deforestation including by addressing problems regarding illegal logging;
- (j) co-operation on trade-related aspects of multilateral environmental agreements, including customs co-operation;

- (k) co-operation on trade-related aspects of the ILO Decent Work Agenda, including on the interlinkages between trade and full and productive employment, labour market adjustment, core labour standards, labour statistics, human resources development and life-long learning, social protection and social inclusion, social dialogue and gender equality;
- (l) exchange of views on the relationship between multilateral environmental agreements and international trade rules; or
- (m) other forms of environmental co-operation as the Parties may deem appropriate.

2. The Parties agree that it would be desirable if co-operative activities developed by them could have as broad an application and benefit as possible.
